Hello, dear Alice!

I am so happy to hear you!

It is wonderful that you liked your trip to London! I really wish I could go there with you. Who you were on trip with? What places have you visited there?

You have asked me about the city I have been to. Well, I really loved Saint Petersburg. I like it's foggy and rainy weather so much! It is very beautiful and lovely city in fact. I really wish I lived there.

But I didn't like Moscow because the most part of people there were very unfriendly and rude. There were many homeless people too.

Tell me, would you like to live in some other city?

With love,

Anna.

Dear Alice,

Thank you for your just another letter. I'm sure it's important to travel. London is worth visiting.

As for your questions I'd like to say that the last city which I've been to is Moscow. Moscow is a real wonder. It's a historic, political, cultural, sport and educational centre. It's rich in museums, theatres, libraries, scientific centres, universities and colleges. People enjoy its sights, monuments, architecture, parks and stadiums, squares and bridges. My travelling was great! After this visit I wouldn't like to go to a town with a dirty and noisy streets, where there are no places to rest and to see sights.

By the way. How long have you been to London?
Who were you with?

I'd better go now. Write back soon!

Best wishes,

Diana.
