Be taught at home by parents rather than be sent to school has its own ~~advantages~~ ^{advantages} and ~~disadvantages~~ ^{disadvantages}. I think it's a bad thing for ~~(the)~~ ^{you} children and I can tell why. Let's mention some advantages and disadvantages of this type of studying.

~~Firstly~~ ^{to} At first, it is difficult for parents to teach their children and work at once. For example, if parents work as ~~the~~ ^{shop} assistants and spend all their time in their shops, ~~the it will~~ they won't be able to find ~~any~~ ^{any} time in their ~~day~~ ^{voluntary} to help their children with their homework. But, if one of their parents ~~were~~ ^{was} a teacher, she or he could count his or her children as a member of her or his own class and give them right study materials for them.

~~At secondly~~ ^{to} children, who don't go to school, won't be able to find ~~enough~~ ^{enough} friends. This is ~~an~~ ^{an} extremely serious problem and ~~will badly show~~ these children won't learn to communicate with the society later. But, these children will have some more spare time than the others and, if they spend it ^{in a} right way, they will get a ~~good~~ ^{good} work and will be happy in their adult life.

~~At thirdly~~ ^{to} sitting at home every day is very bad for their health. Going ^{to} at school, children will have physical education there and will build their muscles. If they don't, they will have to train hard every day ~~to~~ ^{to} not get ill.

Comparing ^{to} all the pluses and minuses of ~~disadvantages~~ ^{disadvantages} studying at home, it is ~~a~~ ^a very bad thing for children. ~~to~~ ^{to} be taught at home.
