Holidays are very important in every student's life, though not every teacher understand its importance.

It's much better for learning to have longer terms, of course. That's because students have more time to study. In a short time we are going to have exams, that's why we need to study a lot. And there is hardly a person to study at holidays. But it doesn't mean that summer holidays should not exist.

We all have to rest sometimes, because we simply can't study for a long time.

The ~~more~~ ^{longer} the terms are - the more we need to rest. There will be no use in studying if we want to rest. Summer holidays are the best though, it's warm, it's sunny, it's the best time for doing nothing. There are also a lot of different activities in summer. My favourite ones are windsurfing and roller-skating. It is hard to find time for it when you are ~~studying~~ ^{studying}. That's why summer holidays are the only time for it: no homework, no lessons. I'm just a regular student, I don't like to study very much, so I would like not to study at all. But I know that it's impossible, we all have to do it, and it's not that bad as it seems, I guess.

That is how I see it. Holidays are much more interesting, but lessons are important too. I don't think I'd like to change something in it, though it's boring to study sometimes.

Should students have a long summer holiday or should terms be longer?

1 - which is better for learning
2 - leisure activities on holidays

Nowadays the question of the length of summer holiday has aroused heated discussions. Some people think that students should have a lot of time to rest after difficult school year, whereas others suppose that the more you study, the more you know. Human brain ~~works~~ ^{rests}.

From my point of view, terms should not be longer. ~~it will just break down.~~ ^{new information for} It is essential to have a break while learning, as our brains need some holiday after absorbing it.

First and foremost, it is essential to have a break while learning. Secondly, summer needs ~~to sort~~ ^{time to sort} the important details. Every body has probably noticed, ~~that if you stop~~ ^{it's easier to get to work after break.} that it's easier to get to work after break. ~~Secondly, summer~~ ^{holidays are good to try a new hobby, to travel somewhere or spend time with your family.} The last, but not the least, ~~Without leisure activities~~ ^{Without leisure activities} ~~it will be meaningless.~~ ^{it will be meaningless.} ~~school or university can make a person~~ ^{school or university can make a person} ~~Without leisure activities~~ ^{Without leisure activities} ~~it depends on studying.~~ ^{it depends on studying.} ~~Longer holidays are perfect time to~~ ^{Longer holidays are perfect time to} ~~mental health of students~~ ^{mental health of students} ~~can break their self-esteem.~~ ^{can break their self-esteem.} ~~Longer~~ ^{Longer} ~~holidays are perfect time to~~ ^{holidays are perfect time to} ~~recover from terrible thoughts.~~ ^{recover from terrible thoughts.} ~~Some people can disagree with my opinion.~~ ^{Some people can disagree with my opinion.} ~~They suppose that the more time you~~ ^{They suppose that the more time you} ~~spend learning the more you succeed in future.~~ ^{spend learning the more you succeed in future.} ~~They think that, students should not~~ ^{They think that, students should not} ~~care about~~ ^{care about} ~~anything but learning.~~ ^{anything but learning.} ~~On the other hand, some people~~ ^{On the other hand, some people} ~~don't care a lot about socialization.~~ ^{don't care a lot about socialization.} ~~finding new friends,~~ ^{finding new friends,} ~~girlfriends or boyfriends.~~ ^{girlfriends or boyfriends.} ~~It is really important as in the future they~~ ^{It is really important as in the future they} ~~will want to talk to someone.~~ ^{will want to talk to someone.} ~~make family, but they~~ ^{make family, but they} ~~will not~~ ^{will not} ~~is more important, that then studying.~~ ^{is more important, that then studying.} ~~But people~~ ^{But people} ~~should not~~ ^{should not} ~~forget~~ ^{forget} ~~about studying at all.~~ ^{about studying at all.}

Should students have a long summer holiday or should terms be longer?

Each ~~Each~~ ~~Every~~ point of view have its ^{own} positive and negative sides. Longer holidays mean that students will have more free time ~~relaxing~~ and free time for their hobbies, activities and friends. Of course it's good for them, but longer holidays also mean that most of the students (~~not~~ ^{not} all) will become more lazy and unprepared for the next year. ~~Then~~ On the other hand, ~~the~~ longer terms will cause students to be more stressful, unmotivated and uninvolved in school ~~every day~~ lessons. ~~But~~ ^{unb.} But it also will cause them to be more ~~hardworking~~ and involved in the learning process.

~~Leisure activities~~ In my opinion, the best leisure activities are watching something (TV, movie, ~~series~~ soap opera, series, anime, etc), reading something (book, manga, comic book, etc) and hang out ~~with~~ ^{year} ~~fr.~~ somewhere with your friends. But it's only my opinion. I think many people like ~~being~~ ~~spending~~ doing something more competitive ~~and~~ and sporty. For example, snow boarding, skiing, chess, sky diving, white-water rafting. Everyone has their own pleasure.
